Sir:

Applicants received a final Office Action in the above-identified application dated July 15, 2005. Applicants filed a timely response on September 15, 2005 which attempted to place the application in condition for allowance. The Examiner indicated via telephone conference on October 12, 2005 to the undersigned that the amendment was approved and the application was being processed for allowance. No allowance was received by Applicants and the undersigned spoke with Examiner Baumeister on January 17, 2006 who indicated that previously allowed subject matter was no longer allowable, the final Office Action would be withdrawn and a new non-final Office Action would be forthcoming.
